Bellary Collector's P.R.317/47 A6 dated 23rd February 1948.
[illegible]d 15th May 1948
[illegible]d 31-st July 1948.

RESOLUTION.

In the famine relief programme for the years 1947-48 and 1948-49, relating to the Bellary district, village works provide employment for 99.1% of the total number of units--Estimates have been sanctioned for 93-8% of these works

2. The principal classes of relief works provided for in the programmes are shown in Statement No.1 Road works in he programme represent 94.0% of the total provisio while irrigation works and miscellaneous works including forest works represent 2.0% and 3.9% respectively. 80.0% of the road works relate to repairs. The Collector is informed that in accordance with he present policy of the Governmen he should provide more irrigation works than road works in the famine relief programme. The present provision is quite inadequate and the Collector is requested to see that this instruction is carrieed out in the next year's programme.

3. Statement No.II is an abstract of the programme showing for each taluk the number of units provided for under sanctioned and unsactioned works. The programme as a whole can provide employment for 20% of the population for a period of 24.6 months. The provision isadequate in all the taluks except Hospet. The Collector is requested to make up the deficiency by providing works in this taluk in the future programmes as already ordered in para 3 of B.P. Mie.1302 dated 3-9-1945.

4. The Collector has now submitted the two certificates (Whether the lists of charge and circle officers have been brought up to date and whether the estimates for the selected works wh ch should be revised during the year have been duly revised) prescribed in Section 14(a) of the Famine Code as amended by C.S.XVIII list dated 5-11-1947. The Collector is requested to furnish the certificates in his future programmes without fail.

5. The Collector has urduly delayed the su mission of the famine relief programme for 1947-48. He is requested to see that the future programmes r ach the Board's office on the due date with the necessary statements and certificates in full
